

Rhode Island Fire Academy Student Handout Sheet

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR FIRE ACADEMY STUDENTS

ATTENDANCE: Students absent for more than 10% of the classroom sessions will not be eligible to take the final exam. Students must complete and pass all practical skills when required by the program. The student must initial next to their name on the attendance sheet for each day of class. If a student neglects to initial the attendance sheet, they will be counted absent for that entire class.

NOTEBOOKS: Only Firefighter 1 students will be required to keep a notebook containing class information. Notebooks will be reviewed and graded by the Coordinator and given a point value between zero (0) and five (5). These points will be added to the student's final grade. The material entered into the notebook is totally up to the student, but must be neat and legible at all times.

EXAMINATIONS: Tests will be given at the beginning of class prior to the start of a new subject. The final exam will be given on the last day of class. Students will have a maximum of two (2) hours to complete the final exam. The average of all tests will count for 60% of the total grade and the final exam will count for the remaining 40% of the total grade. To successfully complete the course, each student must finish with an average grade of 70%. Any individual that does not pass their final exam with a 70% or higher, will not be eligible for Pro-Board certification. Any individual that does not pass the final exam will be offered one (1) opportunity to retake the exam. Exams need to be arranged through the RIFA no sooner than thirty (30) days and no later than six (6) months after the final exam.

EVALUATIONS: Students are required to complete Session and Presenter Evaluations. Evaluation forms will be distributed on the first day of class and are to be returned to the Coordinator on final exam day.

BREAKS: Students will be allowed adequate break time.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE / SMOKING: There shall be no consumption of alcoholic beverages at break or during any fire academy program. Any student who reports to class under the influence of alcohol, drugs or medication, which might impair performance, will be asked to leave. Alcohol or drugs will not be tolerated in the class. Rhode Island Law prohibits SMOKING in any building or grounds where training exercises or classes are conducted.

PAGERS AND PHONES: ALL personal alert devices must be turned off or placed in a vibrate mode while in class. Students are considered "out of service" during class hours.

DRESS CODE: No hats, shorts, cutoffs, muscle shirts, or tank tops shall be worn in the classroom. No firefighting gear, coat, and night hitches will be allowed as outerwear while in the classroom with the exception of the class entitled Personal Protective Equipment (PPE).

CHAIN OF COMMAND: To address any concerns or problems that a student may have are as follows: (1) Instructor, (2) Coordinator, and (3) Director.
